8. This program is maintained pursuant to various collective bargaining agreements. Copies of the collective bargaining agreements are available for inspection at the Fund Office during regular business hours and upon written request will be furnished by mail. A copy of any collective bargaining agreement which provides for contributions to this Fund will also be available for inspection within 10 calendar days after written request at any of the local union offices or at the office of any contributing employer to which at least 50 Plan participants report each day.

9. The Plan's requirements with respect to eligibility for benefits.

The payment to the Fund by an Individual Employer on behalf of an employee covered by one or more of the various collective bargaining agreements establishes eligibility for participation and benefits.

10. Description of circumstances, which may result in disqualification, ineligibility, denial or loss of benefits.

Benefits will be paid to each participant only to the extent that contributions have been received by the Fund for him, and further, provided that the participant has filed with the Fund Office an Enrollment Form with his current address. It is presumed that the Vacation-Holiday payment is accurate unless challenged by the recipient within 60 days of the transmittal of the check.

If the Board is not advised of an address to which notices and checks may be sent to a participant within 4 calendar years after the start of a Vacation Year, or if the amount in his account is not withdrawn within 4 calendar years for any reason, the amount in that account, including any amount received after the start of a Vacation Year, with respect to that Vacation Year, will be deemed contributed to the cost of maintaining the Plan in effect, and any check issued for any amount will be void and ineffective.

11. All contributions to the Plan are made by Individual Employers in accordance with collective bargaining agreements in force with the Northern California District Council of Laborers or one of its affiliated local unions, or by the District Council or an affiliated local union with respect to certain of their employees pursuant to Board regulations. To the extent permitted by the earnings of the Fund, supplemental payments are distributed semi-annually to participants.
12. Benefits are provided from the Laborers Vacation-Holiday Trust Fund for Northern California.
13. The end of the year for purposes of maintaining the Fund's fiscal records is May 31.
14. Procedures to be followed in presenting claims for benefits under the Plan.

The period during which vacations may be taken will be from January 1 through December 31 of each year (designated the "Vacation Year"). The sums credited to each Vacation-Holiday account for work performed during the period from August 1 of one calendar year through January 31 of the following calendar year, and any supplemental payments authorized by the Board of Trustees, will be distributed on or about April 30 of that year. Sums credited to each Vacation-Holiday account for work performed during the period from February 1 through July 31 of that year and any supplemental payments authorized by the Board, will be distributed on or about October 31 of that year. Each distribution of Vacation-Holiday benefits and supplemental payments, if any, will be made by checks mailed to participants in a single mailing as directed by the Board of Trustees not later than the dates specified above.

It is important that each participant keep his check stubs or statements of earnings provided by his employers. This is the best proof of how much should have been contributed by the employers for Vacation-Holiday benefits.

Each participant should compare the total of the Vacation-Holiday deductions made by all of his employers for the period covered by each disbursement, with the amount of his Vacation-Holiday check. If the amount of his Vacation-Holiday check is less than the total of the amounts deducted, it indicates that the employer has not contributed the full amounts due the Vacation-Holiday Trust Fund. The Statement of Account, which the participant receives during March and September of each year, reflects the dollars contributed by each employer on his behalf. The participant will receive only those amounts actually paid by the employer to the Trust Fund. The dollars on the Statement of Account should be verified. This is an important record.

If there is a discrepancy, the participant should file a written protest with the Fund Office within 60 days of the transmittal date of his check, supported by check stubs or statements. The Fund Office will determine which employer or employers failed to remit the Vacation-Holiday contribution to the Trust Fund and will initiate collection procedures for the amounts not paid.

The participant will be credited with the amounts collected from the employer and these amounts will be paid during the month following the month collected.

15. Right of Appeal and Determination of Disputes.
 - a. No participant, beneficiary or other person has any right or claim to benefits under the Vacation-Holiday Plan, or any right or claim to payments from the Fund, other than as specified in the Plan. Any dispute as to eligibility, or any right or claim to payments from the Fund will be resolved by the Board under the Vacation-Holiday Plan provisions. The decision by the Board of Trustees of any dispute, right or claim will be final and binding on all parties, subject only to civil action under §502(a) of ERISA that may be brought by the petitioner and any person claiming under the petitioner. These provisions apply to and include any claim to benefits from the Fund and any claim or right asserted under the Vacation-Holiday Plan or against the Fund, regardless of the basis asserted by the claim and regardless of when the act or omission on which the claim is based occurred.
 - b. If an application for benefits is denied, in whole or in part, by the Fund Office (acting for the Board of Trustees), the applicant will be notified of the denial, in writing, within a reasonable period, but not later than 90 days after receiving the application, unless the Fund Office determines that special circumstances require an extension of time for processing the application. In that case, a written notice of the extension will be furnished to the applicant prior to the end of the 90-day period. Under no circumstances, will the extension exceed 90 days from the end of the initial 90-day period. The notice of extension will indicate the special circumstances requiring an extension and the date by which the Plan expects to make a decision.

c. The written notification of the denial of benefits will be set forth, in a manner calculated to be understood by the applicant, and include:

- (1) The specific reason(s) for the adverse determination;
- (2) Reference to the specific Plan provision(s) on which the denial is based;
- (3) A description of any additional material or information necessary for the applicant to complete the claim and an explanation of why the material or information is necessary;
- (4) A description of the Plan's review procedures and the time limits that apply to those procedures, including a statement of the applicant's right to bring a civil action under §502(a) of ERISA following an adverse benefit determination on review.

d. Any person whose application for benefits under this Plan has been denied, in whole or in part, by the Board of Trustees, or whose claim to benefits is denied by the Board of Trustees, may petition the Board of Trustees to reconsider its decision. A petition for reconsideration:

- (1) Must be in writing; and
- (2) Must state in clear and concise terms the reason(s) for disagreement with the decision of the Board of Trustees; and
- (3) May include documents, records, and other information related to the claim for benefits; and
- (4) Must be filed by the petitioner or the petitioner's duly authorized representative with or received by the Fund Office within 60 days after the date the notice of denial was received by the petitioner.

Upon good cause shown, the Board of Trustees may permit the petition to be amended or supplemented. Failure to file a petition for reconsideration within the 60-day period will constitute a waiver of the petitioner's right to reconsideration of the decision. Failure to file a petition, however, will not prevent the petitioner from establishing his entitlement at a later date based on additional information and evidence that was not available to him at the time of the decision by the Board of Trustees.

Upon request, the petitioner or the petitioner's duly authorized representative will be provided, free of charge, reasonable access to and copies of all documents, records and other information relevant to the petitioner's claim for benefits. A document, record, or other information is considered relevant to a petitioner's claim if it was:

- (a) Relied upon in making the benefit determination,
- (b) Submitted, considered or generated in the course of making the benefit determination, without regard to whether it was relied upon in making the benefit determination,
- (c) Demonstrates that the benefit determination was made in accordance with Plan provisions and that Plan provisions have been applied consistently with respect to similarly situated claims.

The review of the determination will take into account all comments, documents, records, and other information submitted by the claimant relating to the claim without regard to whether the information was submitted or considered in the initial benefit determination.

e. A benefit determination on review will be made by the Trustees or by a committee designated by the Trustees no later than the date of the quarterly meeting of the Board of Trustees that immediately follows receipt of the request for review, unless the request for review is filed within 30 days preceding the date of the meeting. In that case, a benefit determination will be made no later than the date of the second meeting following receipt of the request for review. If special circumstances require a further extension of time for processing, a benefit determination will be made no later than the third meeting following receipt of the request for review. The Board of Trustees will provide the petitioner with a written notice of the extension, describing the special circumstances and the date by which the benefit determination will be made, prior to the commencement of the extension. The Board of Trustees will notify the petitioner of the benefit determination as soon as possible, but not later than 5 days after the benefit determination is made.

The notification of a benefit determination on review will be made in writing and will include the reason(s) for the determination, including references to specific Plan provisions on which the determination is based. It will include a statement that the petitioner is entitled to receive, upon request and free of charge, reasonable access to, and copies of all documents, records, and other information relevant to the claim for benefits.

- f. The denial of a claim to which the right to review has been waived, or the decision of the Board of Trustees or its designated committee with respect to a petition for review, is final and binding upon all parties, subject only to any civil action the applicant may bring under §502(a) of ERISA. Following issuance of a written decision of the Board of Trustees on an appeal, there is no further right of appeal to the Board of Trustees or right to arbitration.

However, a petitioner may reestablish his entitlement to benefits at a later date based on additional information and evidence not available to him at the time of the decision of the Board of Trustees.

Statement of Rights under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

As a participant in the Laborers Vacation-Holiday Trust Fund for Northern California, you are entitled to certain rights and protections under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). ERISA provides that all Plan participants will be entitled to:

Receive Information About Your Plan and Benefits

Examine, without charge, at the Plan Administrator's office and at other specified locations, such as worksites and union halls, all Plan documents governing the Plan, including insurance contracts, collective bargaining agreements and a copy of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) filed by the Plan with the U.S. Department of Labor and available at the Public Disclosure Room of the Pension and Welfare Benefits Administration.

Obtain, upon written request to the Plan Administrator, copies of documents governing the operation of the Plan, including insurance contracts and collective bargaining agreements, and copies of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) and updated summary plan description. The administrator may make a reasonable charge for the copies.

Receive a summary of the Plan's annual financial report. The Plan Administrator is required by law to furnish each participant with a copy of this summary annual report.

Prudent Actions by Plan Fiduciaries

In addition to creating rights for Plan participants, ERISA imposes duties upon the people who are responsible for the operation of the employee benefit plan. The people who operate your Plan, called "fiduciaries" of the Plan, have a duty to do so prudently and in the interest of you and other Plan participants and beneficiaries. No one, including your employer, your union, or any other person, may fire you or otherwise discriminate against you in any way to prevent you from obtaining a vacation benefit or exercising your rights under ERISA.

Enforce Your Rights

If your claim for a vacation benefit is denied, in whole or in part, you have a right to know why this was done, to obtain copies of documents relating to the decision without charge, and to appeal any denial, all within certain time schedules.

Under ERISA, there are steps you can take to enforce the above rights. For instance, if you request a copy of Plan documents or the latest annual report from the Plan and do not receive them within 30 days, you may file suit in a federal court. In such a case, the court may require the Plan Administrator to provide the materials and pay you up to $110 a day until you receive the materials, unless the materials were not sent because of reasons beyond the control of the administrator. If you have a claim for benefits, which is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you may file suit in a state or federal court. If it should happen that Plan fiduciaries misuse the Plan's money, or if you are discriminated against for asserting your rights, you may seek assistance from the U.S. Department of Labor, or you may file suit in a federal court. The court will decide who should pay court costs and legal fees. If you are successful the court may order the person you have sued to pay these costs and fees. If you lose, the court may order you to pay these costs and fees, for example, if it finds your claim is frivolous.

Assistance with Your Questions

If you have any questions about your Plan, you should contact the Plan Administrator. If you have any questions about this statement or about your rights under ERISA, or if you need assistance in obtaining documents from the Plan Administrator, you should contact the nearest office of the Employee Benefits Security Administration (EBSA), U.S. Department of Labor, listed in your telephone directory or the Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210. You may also obtain certain publications about your rights and responsibilities under ERISA by calling the publications hotline of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.
